“For many listeners, this will be like a visit to an old, familiar place of spiritual nurturing... There’s a nice ‘feel’ to this disc, a sensibility that conveys the intended spiritual qualities embodied in most of the musical works, and as such, it’s a success.”

—CLASSICS TODAY

Celebrate the sacred sounds of America with Kaleidoscope. This is the music that has lofted through church rafters across the United States since its founding, and continues to bring comfort and strength to its faithful people today. Features a new arrangement of Amazing Grace; classics by some of America’s great composers such as Aaron Copland, Virgil Thomson, Leo Sowerby and Paul Manz; and beloved hymns from Appalachia and the South, arranged by Alice Parker and others.

*“If you think you’ve been overdosed on Amazing Grace, you need to re-open the subject until you’ve heard the enchanting new choir-and-solo strings arrangement that opens this program.”*
